Rulemaking 02-12-004
(Filed December 5, 2002)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING MODIFYING SCHEDULE FOR MOTIONS REQUESTING HEARINGS

This ruling modifies the schedule established in the Order Instituting Rulemaking (OIR) for motions to request hearings and grants The Utility Reform Network's (TURN) motion to supplement its reply comments. The March 7, 2003 ruling on the motion to suspend this proceeding narrowed and modified the request for comments but was silent on the deadline for motions requesting evidentiary hearings, due 15 days after the filing of reply comments. (OIR, Ordering Paragraph 11.) Because proposed measures and standards will be submitted as draft rules subject to comment by the parties, it would be more efficient to permit parties to file any motions requesting hearings at a later date. I have consulted with the assigned Commissioner and will take off calendar the deadline for those motions pending further ruling.

On May 7, 2003, TURN filed a motion seeking leave to supplement its reply comments to include an attachment, the General Accounting Office (GAO) report, GAO-03-051, recommending that the Federal Communications Commission should include call quality in its annual report on competition in mobile phone services. Because the GAO report includes information on mobile phone service quality that could assist the Commission in this proceeding, TURN's supplement to its reply comments will be accepted for filing.

IT IS RULED that:

1. The deadline for motions requesting evidentiary hearings is modified, as set forth herein.
2. The supplement to the reply comments of The Utility Reform Network is accepted for filing.

Dated May 13, 2003, at San Francisco, California.
